

LTC Sam Johnson, USA (Ret)

LTC (R) Samuel T. Johnson III is a native of St. Louis, MO and currently resides in Aberdeen, MD. He gained his commission in the Military Intelligence branch through the Army Reserve Officer Training Corps program at the University of Kansas, where he graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Journalism. He has subsequently earned a Master of Arts in Marketing from Webster University, and a Doctor of Education from Nova Southeastern University. LTC (R) Johnson's assignments include Platoon Leader and Executive Officer of a Training Support Company at Fort Huachuca, AZ, Battalion S-2, Division G-2 Counterintelligence Officer and Division G-3 Electronic Warfare Officer in the 25th Infantry Division, Schofield Barracks, HI, Brigade Assistant S-3 in the 513th Military Intelligence Brigade, Fort Monmouth, NJ, Instructor, Battalion S-3 and Battalion Executive Officer in the 98th Training Division, Fort Dix, NJ, Civil Affairs Officer in both the 404th and the 416th Civil Affairs Battalions and Commander, Headquarters and Headquarters Company 358th Civil Affairs Brigade. LTC (R) Johnson attended The Command and General Staff College and The U.S. Army War College. He is currently the President and CEO of Communication Technology and Training (CT2), a Veteran Owned Small Business. CT2 provides a variety of technology and training services and products to the Department of Defense and to private industry.