

Colonel Edward Park is currently serving as the Deputy Commander, 351st Civil Affairs Command, Mountain View, CA. Prior to this assignment, he served as the Deputy G-3 (Operations), 7 Mission Support Command, Kaiserslautern, Germany. A native of Orlando, Florida, COL Park was commissioned a Field Artillery officer from the University of Florida and served with the 2nd Infantry and 82nd Airborne Divisions, deploying to Iraq and New Orleans for Hurricane Katrina disaster relief operations. After leaving active duty, COL Park joined the Army Reserves. He transitioned to the Civil Affairs branch in 2008 and subsequently deployed to Afghanistan in 2009. After redeployment, COL Park joined the Active Guard Reserve program and served on CA battalion, Combatant Command, and Field Army staffs in New Jersey, Hawaii, and Japan. He completed resident National War College at Fort McNair, DC, in 2021. He considers himself lucky to be afforded the opportunity to attend multiple military schools and be recognized with awards commensurate to his rank.
